Note: The ANCC accreditation criteria computes 1 contact hour for each 60 minutes of learning activity. Calculation for self-paced learning activities is based on the estimated time required for completion. This activity's contact hours have been calculated using a standardized formula based on average time allotted per question. Each professional is accountable to understand his or her accrediting/licensing body's standards and requirements. The definitive source of information on continuing education requirements is the state or national regulatory board. It is the participant's responsibility to keep this certificate for 6 years in their personal records for re-licensure/certification purposes. If you are renewing your Nursing license in the state of Florida, do not forward certificate to the Board of Nursing.
